

Modern Russia Day

Come take part in a Russian cultural event showcasing the multiple ties between CSUN and Russia. Sponsored by Russian Studies in the Liberal Studies Program.

When: Tuesday, April 21, 2015
4:00pm – 6:00pm

Where: Oviatt Library
Presentation Room

Event Includes:

“Russian and the West Today” by Alex Durmashkin
President, American-Russian Business Council
President & Publisher of Magazine “Fact”

“The Many Facets of the Russian Language” by Boris Gorbis,
Attorney at Law

“Contributions of Russian Art to American Culture” by Dr. Mark Konecny,
Associate Director, Institute of Modern Russian Culture, USC

“Into Russia and Back” - Stories of Alumni from the STARTALK Russian Language and Culture Immersion Program

Exhibition of materials about Russia available in the Oviatt Library

Russian Tea Party (Pirozhki and Blini)

This event is FREE and open to the public. Campus map: <http://www.csun.edu/csun-maps>
Campus parking is $6 at Prairie/Darby Information Booth.
For additional information contact – dina.mokhnatkin@csun.edu; 818-677-3593

Please RSVP via email by April 17, 2015.