Announcement of Anticipated Part-Time Faculty Openings

Department: Oviatt Library/Research, Instruction & Outreach Services (http://library.csun.edu)

Effective Date of Appointment: August 2015

All part-time faculty appointments are temporary and do not confer academic rank.

Anticipated needs: Full-time and part-time temporary librarian positions (Assistant Librarian Rank) in the Research, Instruction & Outreach Services Department. Appointments by semester. May include evening and/or weekend hours.

Current Salary Range: Dependent upon experience and qualifications.

Qualifications

Minimum: Graduate degree in library/information science from an ALA-accredited school, or equivalent degree if granted from outside the United States or Canada.

Required: Demonstrated reference desk service proficiency, preferably in a busy academic library, and enthusiasm for library instruction. Demonstrated ability and commitment to work with a diverse campus community.

Desirable: Library instruction or teaching experience; experience with electronic resources and applications such as online indexing systems, internet, an integrated library system, and web page development. Strong service commitment; excellent oral, written, and interpersonal communication skills; and knowledge of current trends and issues in academic librarianship. Willingness to serve as needed in a range of library duties, which may include reference and instructional services to a specific subject discipline or program area within the Arts & Humanities, Social Sciences, Education, or Physical or Life Sciences, as well as lower division composition courses. Assigned duties may include the development of online access or finding tools. Also desirable is experience in creating learning objects to be embedded within Learning Management Systems, such as Moodle.

Application Process: Applicants should forward a current resume and a cover letter that designates if interested in a full- or part-time position and, whenever possible, times available for reference desk and library instruction assignments. The resume should include educational background, prior reference services and library instruction experience, evidence of scholarship, and/or related professional experience.
