

Sharing Stories to Build Stronger School and Academic Libraries

Join Us!

The California School Library Association (CSLA), Southern Region Section 2 and CSUN University Library invite you to the Teacher Curriculum Center (TCC) for an afternoon of conversation about issues important to both academic and K12 school librarians. Lunch will be provided.

Details

Saturday, February 24th
12:30 PM through 2:30 PM

CSUN University Library
UL 251 - Second Floor, East Wing inside the Teacher Curriculum Center and Music & Media Collection (TCC/M&M)

Register

Please register by February 14th
Registration will be capped at 25 attendees
Event information can be found at library.csun.edu

Sharing Stories to Build Stronger School and Academic Libraries

Agenda

12:30 – 1:00 Meet and Greet Lunch

- Mediterranean Buffet

1:00 – 2:15 Presentations and Discussions

- Preparing students for college research and instructor expectations, facilitated by CSUN Librarians Brianna Limas, Jamie Johnson, and Lisa Cheby
- Research as Storytelling: What stories do we want to tell about school libraries? With a guest presentation by Teacher Librarian Cassandra Jones

2:15 – 2:30 Closing remarks

After 2:30, stick around for a tour of Teacher Curriculum Center!

Register

Please register by February 14th
Registration will be capped at 25 attendees
Event information can be found at library.csun.edu

