

FIGURE 26.—The aerial photographs that follow illustrate land use patterns from all States of the Union. Spot location and distribution of the areas included are indicated on the map. The numbers used correspond to the plate numbers of the photographs and consequently provide a ready reference for consultation on individual photographs.