EXPERIENCE

CSUN University Library July 2001-present
Librarian (Full Librarian Status awarded 2010, Tenure Awarded in 2006)

Serves as a subject specialist and library faculty liaison, fulfilling both instruction and bibliographer duties, for the History, Jewish Studies, Gender and Women's Studies, American Indian Studies and Queer Studies departments and the assigned area of California Studies. Provides outreach and instructional support to these departments' faculty and students through teaching and individual reference consultation. Designs and teaches information literacy sessions for undergraduate and graduate courses via both in-person and online modes of instruction. Utilizes technology to collaborate and create digital learning objects to support library instruction through the creation of LibGuides, web pages and other digital learning objects. Provides reference assistance through the University Library's reference services programming. Serves on shared governance committees through participation in library, campus and CSU system wide faculty committee work and working groups as elected or appointed.

Coordinator of Instruction and Information Literacy July 2003-present

Instruction Coordination Duties:

Responsible for collaborative coordination of library instructional programming delivered to departments, programs and colleges to support the library's instructional presence and information literacy efforts. Assists with management and training for library's online instructional booking system. Supports the development and assessment of digital learning objects through collaboration with the Online Instructional Team. Provides training on the Library's instructional programs to incoming library faculty and interns. Supports the library's instructional partnerships with other campus instructional support units as assigned.

Information Literacy Coordinator Duties:

Supports CSU, CSUN and University Library information literacy programming and assessment projects. Updates library faculty about information literacy instruction issues at RIOS department meetings. Supports the incorporation of national (ACRL) IL Framework and Standards and CSUN GE IC learning outcomes into CSUN curricula to help meet WASC accreditation needs through consultation and collaboration. Assists faculty with designing/redesigning course proposals for GE information competence designation and non-GE course approval. Maintains University Library CSUN Information Competence (IL) program webpages.
