Professor Jeffrey Bailey; Librarian is Marcia Henry

Welcome to the Oviatt Library Health Sciences 539!

The Goals of today's Library sessions are to help you find scholarly, peer reviewed, and authoritative government resources on your topics:

- HPV Vaccine
- End State renal disease
- Resilience among young A/A girls -linked to teen pregnancy rates
- Infectious disease among low income populations
- Sleep health among teens
- Influenza vaccine among pregnant women
- Older adults and depression
- Bullying among LGBT middle school students

The Databases and Resources we will examine together can be found by using the Find Articles by Subject Health Sciences + Nursing at

<http://library.csun.edu/xerxes/databases/subject/health-sciences-nursing> with special emphasis on

- PubMed (including Medical Subject Headings and subheadings, and cross references, Search detail box for search term interpretation, Link out to MedlinePlus related topics,
- MedlinePlus features for legislation, statistics, overviews, and more;
- EbscoHost databases including CINAHLPlus with Full Text, PsycInfo, ERIC (Education) plus many more,
- OneSearch
- EndNoteWeb
- Internet resources - Healthy People 2020 website at

Check for Full Text Using Find Text

If the article isn't available full text in the database you are searching, click the Find Text button to see if we have access to the full text through another database or in print. A new page opens that will have one or more of the following links:

- Full text available via [database name]: Click to access the full-text online. If the link takes you to a publication-level page, you can navigate to the article by first choosing the correct year, then the correct month or volume number, then the issue, and then selecting the article from the displayed table of contents.
- We have this. Check availability in CSU Northridge Catalog: We have the article in print. Click to view the catalog record for the journal or magazine. You'll need to note the call number and then go to the fourth floor to get the article.
- Request document via Interlibrary Loan: We do not have the article online or in print. You can request the article via interlibrary loan (takes approximately ten working days).

For more information, see About Find Text.
